

© Ant Legg

Those who do not walk with Me are living with a noose around their necks. They laugh and go about their way. They plan and scheme and walk the way of folly. But this way will lead to eternal death and darkness. But I have removed the noose from your neck. I will lead you into a land of blessing. Choose Me every day and not the noose. I am Jesus. I am light and life to all who choose Me. I am your peace and strength. The eternal hope in the darkness. My light will show you the way.