

Magnificent is My name.
With Unlimited power and authority.
No one can deny Me anything at any time. I hold all colors in My hand.
Even those you have never seen. Frost fire and wind come from My mouth.
The stars are created and placed and ended at My command. The planets and all the solar systems are like dust in My hand. I have captured and remembered every thought action and word that has ever occurred. Every spiritual being trembles before me. I Am the Fantastic Holy One. Every future and past waits at My purpose.
Yet, You have captured My heart little one. You are unspeakably precious to Me. You come from My very being. My heart of Love.
