

Great power have I placed in your hands. Hands. Old hands. Tiny hands. Trembling hands. Hungry hands. Folded hands. Giving hands. Caring hands. Power that will change lives, and the course of history and nations. Power that will melt hearts and change minds. Prayer and power that will bring waves of mercy and great changes and revival. Power to bring eternal and everlasting joy. Power to bring down the proud and rise up the humble. Power to build a mighty and magnificent and eternal kingdom. So pray, and raise up your hands and I will raise up with you. You will know My face and realize your destiny. Dare to hope and dream and declare.
