Thank you

Your kindness and love

Your words
Your time

You gave.
You listened
You jumped in my mud puddle with me and helped pull me out. You spoke things that I needed to hear. You believed in me when others did not. You did not judge me when you could have so easily. You kept silent when it was difficult. You defended me with courage. You forgave me and gave me another chance. You stayed with me when I needed you. Thank you for being you. Words are just not enough.
